- ◆ scored 1,316 runs with the Cubs, the 3rd-highest total in club history behind a pair of 19th-century Cubs stars — Cap Anson (1,719 runs) and Jimmy Ryan (1,409).
 - ✓ also ranks among the Cubs' Top 10 in games played (2,151), at-bats (8,379), hits (2,385), total bases (3,786), singles (1,624), doubles (403), extra-base hits (761), RBI (1,061), walks (761) and stolen bases (344).

Most Valuable Player honors after batting .314 with 36 doubles, 19 triples, 19 homers, 84 RBI and a league-high 114 runs scored ... won the first of his seven Silver Slugger Awards that season and was named The Sporting News' Major League Player of the Year.

"THE SANDBERG GAME" AND "THE SMITTY GAME"

On June 23, 1984, Ryne Sandberg went 5-for-6 with 2 late-inning dramatic homers and 7 RBI in the Cubs' 11-inning 12-11 victory over St. Louis. Sandberg hit a solo homer off the Cardinals' Bruce Sutter in the bottom of the 9th inning to knot the game at 9-9. Then, after St. Louis tallied twice in the top of the 10th, Sandberg once again knotted the game — this time with a 2-run shot off Sutter. Following his game-tying homers, the Cubs won it on Dave Owen's RBI single. "The Sandberg Game" overshadowed the performance of the Cardinals' Willie McGee, who hit for the cycle.

On August 29, 1989, the Cubs overcame a 9-0 deficit to defeat Houston 10-9 in 10 innings — their biggest come-from-behind victory in almost 60 years (overcame a 9-run deficit September 28, 1930, to defeat Cincinnati 13-11). Dwight Smith, who entered the game in the 6th inning as a defensive replacement, went 2-for-2 with 3 RBI — including a game-tying sacrifice fly in the Cubs' 4-run 8th inning and a game-winning bases-loaded singled in the bottom of the 10th.

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.20 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and;
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and;
- (3) He qualifies under the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or;
 - (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or;
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save."

If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

HOW TO FIGURE BASEBALL STATISTICS

Earned Run Average — (ERx9)/IP: Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Batting Average — H/AB: Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage — TB/AB: Total number of bases divided by at-bats (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases).

Fielding Average — (PO+A)/(PO+A+E): Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage — (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF): Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage: Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers: Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

On May 30, 1927, shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the only unassisted triple play in Cubs history. In the fourth inning of the Cubs' game in Pittsburgh, Cooney caught Paul Waner's line drive, stepped on second base to retire Lloyd Waner, then tagged Clyde Barnhart off first.

On June 29, 1937, Cubs first baseman Jimmy Collins set a National League record by not having any fielding chances in the Cubs' 11-9 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis. Leftfielder Augie Galan and catcher Gabby Hartnett each had 8 of the Cubs' 27 putouts, followed by second baseman Billy Herman (4), shortstop Billy Jurges (3), centerfielder Joe Marty (2), starting rightfielder Frank Demaree (1) and substitute rightfielder Phil Cavarretta (1). Herman had both Cubs assists in the game on force plays at second base.

INTRODUCING THE STARTING LINEUP

In 1999, Mark Grace was the Cubs' Opening Day starter at first base for the 11th consecutive year, while Sammy Sosa made his eighth straight season-opening start (seventh in rightfield). Grace became just the second player in Cubs history to make Opening Day starts at the same position in every year of a decade, joining first baseman Cap Anson — who accomplished the feat during the 1880s.

Since 1978, only three players have been season-opening starters at first base for the Cubs — Bill Buckner (1978-1983), Leon Durham (1984-1988) and Grace (1989-1999)

Here are the most Opening Day starts for Cubs players by position (with year of last start in parentheses):

First Base: 16, Cap Anson (1895) ... since 1900 — 12, Charlie Grimm (1936)

Second Base: 13, Ryne Sandberg (1997)

Shortstop: 11, Shawon Dunston (1997)

Third Base: 13, Ron Santo (1973)

Leftfield: 10, Billy Williams (1973)

Centerfield: 8, George Gore (1886) ... since 1900 — 7, Andy Pafko (1951)

Rightfield: 7, Wildfire Schulte (1913) and Sammy Sosa (1999)

Catcher: 12, Gabby Harnett (1938)

Pitcher: 8, Fergie Jenkins (1983)

THE YOUNG AND THE YOUNG AT HEART

The youngest player to play for the Cubs was Milt Scott, who was just 16 years, 8 months old when he made his major league debut September 30, 1882.

Since 1900, the youngest Cubs position player was Danny Murphy, who was 17 years, 9 months old when he made his debut June 18, 1960. He also is the youngest Cub to hit a home run, as he went deep for the first time September 13 that season against Cincinnati (18 years, 20 days old).

The youngest pitcher in Cubs history was Dick Ellsworth, who was just 18 years, 3 months old when he made his big league debut June 22, 1958.

The oldest player to play for the Cubs was Hoyt Wilhelm. Born in 1923, Wilhelm joined the Cubs in September 1970 — two months after his 47th birthday — and pitched in 3 games with the club.

The only players in their 40s to make Opening Day starts for the Cubs were first baseman Cap Anson (final season-opening start in 1895 at the age of 43), pitcher Dutch Leonard (40 in 1949) and third baseman Gary Gaetti (40 in 1999).

ALL LEFT

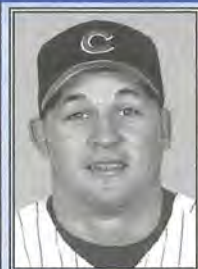

When he made his Cubs debut in 1999, Brian McNichol became the sixth different southpaw to start a game for the Cubs during the season, joining Terry Mulholland, Brad Woodall, Dan Serafini, Micah Bowie and Andrew Lorraine. The Cubs also utilized four left-handed relievers during the campaign — Felix Heredia, Ray King, Doug Creek and Mark Guthrie.

Ten left-handed pitchers established a club record, while six southpaw starters tied the team mark.

The only previous time in Cubs history that the club had more than eight left-handers in a season was in 1966, when the team had nine southpaws (including six who started). The 1966 lefties (games-starts): Dave Dowling (1-1), Arnie Earley (13-0), Dick Ellsworth (38-37), Bob Hendley (43-6), Bill Hoelt (36-0), Ken Holtzman (34-33), Fred Norman (2-0), Rich Nye (3-2) and Curt Simmons (19-10).

A GRAND TIME WAS HAD BY ALL

With 3 grand slams in 1999, the Cubs increased their all-time number of bases-loaded roundtrippers to 250.

The Cubs record for grand slams in a season is 9, recorded in 1929. Players who hit bases-clearing homers during the season were Hack Wilson (2), Rogers Hornsby (2), Charlie Grimm (2), Riggs Stephenson, Norman McMillan and Kiki Cuyler. McMillan's roundtripper was of the inside-the-park variety.

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than 2 grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit 3 grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

During a 3-game series against Milwaukee at Wrigley Field September 11-September 13, 1998, the final scores of the contests were 13-11 (Milwaukee), 15-12 (Cubs) and 11-10 (Cubs).

The combined 72 runs scored made it the highest-scoring 3-game series in the majors since June 23-June 25, 1950, when Brooklyn (47) and Pittsburgh (31) combined to plate 78 runs.

Meanwhile, that marked the first time the Cubs scored at least 10 runs in 3 straight games since 1930, when the Cubs established a team record by reaching the 10-runs plateau in 5 consecutive contests June 1-June 6.

CAREER REVIEW

1998: Henry teamed up with Sammy Sosa to form the most prolific homer-hitting duo in Cubs history ... finished the campaign with 31 homers and 85 RBI to go with a .251 batting average.

- ◆ combined with Sosa to hit 97 roundtrippers, surpassing the 93 recorded by Hack Wilson (56) and Gabby Hartnett (37) in 1930.

- ✓ became the first left-handed-hitting Cubs outfielder to reach the 30-homers mark since Rick Monday (32) in 1976.

- ✓ Rodriguez and Sosa comprised the first Cubs 30-homer outfield tandem since 1950, when centerfielder Andy Pafko hit 36 homers and leftfielder Hank Sauer went deep 32 times.

- ◆ opened his Cubs career by homering in his first at-bat Opening Day (March 31) at Florida — a 3-run shot off Livan Hernandez.
- ◆ had his first career 5-hit game April 10 at Montreal.
- ◆ hit his fourth career grand slam May 14 off Colorado's John Thomson.
- ◆ hit his 100th M.L. homer June 25 off Detroit's Brian Moehler.
- ◆ was on the disabled list August 24-September 8 with a sprained right ankle.
- ◆ went 1-for-7 in the Division Series against Atlanta.

- ◆ hit grand slams May 7 off San Francisco's Osveldo Fernandez and July 21 off Colorado's Darren Holmes.
- ◆ hit an estimated 525-foot homer off Detroit's Brian Moehler June 15 at Olympic Stadium — with the baseball hitting the ballpark's service rim along the rightfield line ... after hitting the rim, the ball shot upward and hit the roof before striking a speaker on the way down.
- ◆ had a career-high 16-game hitting streak May 4-May 22 (19-57, .333).

1996: Had his best big league season, going to the All-Star Game and batting .276 with career highs in doubles (42), homers (36) and RBI (103).

- ◆ became the first player in N.L. history to hit 20 homers before June 1.
- ◆ homered in 4 straight games April 20-April 24, tying an Expos club record ... was selected as the N.L. Player of the Week for April 22-April 28 after going 12-for-33 with 4 homers and 12 RBI.
- ◆ was named to the All-Star team as a replacement for the injured Tony Gwynn ... pinch hit in the 2nd inning and had a run-scoring single off Cleveland's Charles Nagy.
- ◆ on August 12 against Houston, he homered in the 2nd inning off Danny Darwin ... was hit by a Darwin pitch in his next at-bat, prompting a bench-clearing brawl ... received a 4-game N.L. suspension, which he served August 16-August 19.
- ◆ reached the 100-RBI milestone September 26 when he hit his first career grand slam (off Philadelphia's Curt Schilling).

1995: Opened the season with Los Angeles before being traded to Montreal in May ... due to a fracture in his right leg, he saw action in just 45 games.

- ◆ after being traded to the Expos May 23, he made his Montreal debut the following day and hit a game-winning homer in a 3-2 victory over San Diego.
- ◆ left the Expos' June 1 contest against St. Louis with spasms in his lower right leg ... X-rays taken the next day revealed a fractured right tibia, and he was out of action until September.

1994: Spent his first full season in the majors, playing in 104 games for Los Angeles and batting .268 with 8 homers and 49 RBI.

- ◆ was the Dodgers' Opening Day starter in leftfield and had 2 hits in the club's 4-3 win over Florida ... the next day, he had his first M.L. 2-homer contest.

ABOUT WILLIAMS

Brian was signed as a free agent by the Cubs on January 7 — the first player obtained by the Cubs in the year 2000 ... has previously pitched in the majors for Houston, San Diego, Detroit and Baltimore.

- ◆ was one of two free agents signed by the Cubs this off-season to have played for Houston in 1999, joining Ricky Gutierrez.
 - ✓ Williams and Gutierrez were involved in one of baseball's biggest trades in recent years ... as part of a 12-player deal in December 1994, Williams — then in his first stint with the Astros — was traded to San Diego while Gutierrez headed east to Houston.
- ◆ has made 12 major league relief appearances of at least 3.0 innings, including a career-best 4.2-inning stint June 11, 1997 (pitching for Baltimore at Boston) ... has also made 59 big league starts.
- ◆ is a 1987 graduate of Lewisville High School in Richburg, SC.
- ◆ attended the University of South Carolina, where he received a bachelor's degree in business management in 1993.
 - ✓ spent three seasons on South Carolina's baseball team, playing every position except second base and catcher ... as a pitcher, he went 18-8 with 277 strikeouts in 223.2 innings of work ... at the plate, he batted .309 with 17 homers.
- ◆ was an outfielder for Team USA during a 1989 tour of Cuba and Latin America.

1999 SEASON

Brian spent the season as a member of Houston's relief corps in his second stint in the Astros' organization ... made a career-high 50 appearances out of the bullpen and went 2-1 with a 4.41 ERA.

- ◆ pitched at least 2.0 innings in 13 of his outings, including Houston's two longest relief appearances of the campaign — a 3.2-inning stint June 6 at Minnesota and a 3.1-inning stint April 7 against the Cubs.
- ◆ surrendered 3 or more runs in 6 of his appearances (21 runs in 8.1 innings) ... in his other 44 contests, he gave up 12 earned runs in 59.0 innings for a 1.83 ERA.
 - ✓ over a 6-game span April 20-May 11, he allowed 3 hits over 10.0 scoreless innings.

- ◆ allowed only 4 homers in 67.1 innings of work.

ABOUT WOOD

Kerry was the 1998 Jackie Robinson National League Rookie of the Year, fanning 233 batters in 26 starts — including a major league record-tying 20-strikeout contest May 6 vs. Houston.

- ◆ also was named Baseball America's Rookie of the Year, The Sporting News's N.L. Rookie Pitcher of the Year and Baseball Weekly and Baseball Digest's N.L. Rookie of the Year ... was voted the N.L.'s Outstanding Rookie by his peers at the Players Choice Awards.
- ◆ along with setting the Cubs rookie mark for strikeouts, he recorded the highest strikeout-to-innings pitched ratio of any Cubs starter during the 20th century (12.6 per 9.0 innings).
- ◆ graduated from Grand Prairie (TX) High School in 1995 ... as a senior, he earned high school all-America and Texas 5-A Player of the Year honors.

1999 SEASON

Kerry missed the entire season after undergoing surgery to repair the torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow.

- ◆ the surgery was performed on April 8 by Dr. James Andrews ... during the reconstructive elbow surgery, his torn ligament was repaired and wrapped with a graft from his right forearm.
- ◆ made his only start of the campaign during a spring contest March 13, pitching 1.1 innings against Anaheim.

1998: Kerry burst onto the national scene during his rookie campaign, becoming just the fourth Cubs player — and the club's first pitcher — to win the Jackie Robinson National League Rookie of the Year Award ... went 13-6 with 233 strikeouts and a 3.40 ERA in 26 starts.

- ranked 3rd in the N.L. in strikeouts ... led the league in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (12.6) and in opponents' batting average against (.196).
- struck out the side 11 times and fanned 2 batters in an inning 66 times ... had nine double-digit strikeout games.
- his strikeout total set the Cubs' 20th-century rookie record, surpassing the 225 recorded by Tom Hughes in 1901 ... was the first Cub to reach the 200-strikeout mark since Fergie Jenkins in 1971 (263).
- made his M.L. debut April 12 at Montreal after the Cubs purchased his contract from Iowa (AAA) and took the loss in a 4-1 decision ... struck out 7 batters in 4.2 innings — including the first batter he faced (Mark Grudzielanek).
- picked up his first M.L. win in his Wrigley Field debut April 18 against Los Angeles (8-1) ... in the Cubs' 8-run 1st inning, he recorded his first big league hit and RBI (off Hideo Nomo).
- thanks to his 20-strikeout game May 6 vs. Houston, he earned N.L. Player of the Week honors for May 4-May 10.
- in a 9-4 win over Philadelphia June 20, he homered off the Phillies' Matt Beech.
- set the Cubs' 20th-century single-season rookie strikeout record in his final start of the season August 31 vs. Cincinnati, fanning Brett Tomko for strikeout No. 226 ... two innings later, he hit a 2-run homer off Tomko.
- missed the last month of the regular season due to a sprained ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow.
- returned to the mound in the Division Series, as he started Game 3 against Atlanta ... took the loss in a 6-2 decision despite allowing just 1 run and 3 hits in 5.0 innings.

20-K GOLD PERFORMANCE

On May 6, 1998, in just his fifth major league start, Kerry Wood fanned 20 Houston Astros and allowed just 1 hit in a complete-game 2-0 win at Wrigley Field ... allowed only 2 baserunners, giving up a single to Ricky Gutierrez in the 3rd inning and hitting Craig Biggio in the 6th.

- the 20 strikeouts:
 - ✓ tied the M.L. record for a 9-inning game set by Boston's Roger Clemens (April 29, 1986, and September 18, 1996).
 - ✓ eclipsed the N.L. record of 19 reached by Providence's Charlie Sweeney (June 7, 1884), St. Louis' Steve Carlton (September 15, 1969), New York's Tom Seaver (April 22, 1970) and New York's David Cone (October 6, 1991).
 - ✓ exceeded the M.L. rookie record of 18 strikeouts, which had been reached by the Philadelphia Athletics' Jack Coombs on September 1, 1906, and by Montreal's Bill Gullickson (against the Cubs) on September 10, 1980.
 - ✓ surpassed the Cubs record of 17, set by Jack Pfeister in a 15-inning outing May 30, 1906, vs. St. Louis.
- his inning-by-inning strikeouts:
 - ✓ 1st — Craig Biggio (swinging), Derek Bell (swinging), Jeff Bagwell (called)
 - ✓ 2nd — Jack Howell (swinging), Moises Alou (swinging)
 - ✓ 3rd — Brad Ausmus (swinging)
 - ✓ 4th — Bagwell (called), Howell (called)
 - ✓ 5th — Alou (called), Dave Clark (called), Ricky Gutierrez (called)
 - ✓ 6th — Shane Reynolds (called)
 - ✓ 7th — Bagwell (swinging), Howell (swinging), Alou (swinging)
 - ✓ 8th — Clark (swinging), Gutierrez (swinging), Ausmus (called)
 - ✓ 9th — Bill Spiers (swinging), Bell (swinging)
- opened the game with 5 straight strikeouts and later had stretches in which he fanned 5 in a row and 7 in a row ... when he struck out 7 straight batters during the 7th through 9th innings, he tied Jamie Moyer's club mark (July 3, 1987, vs. San Francisco).
- became just the second pitcher in M.L. history to strike out as many batters as his age ... 17-year-old Cleveland Indians rookie Bob Feller fanned 17 Philadelphia Athletics batters on September 13, 1936.
- in the follow-up start to his 20-strikeout game May 11 at Arizona, he fanned 13 batters in 7.0 innings in a 4-2 win ... when he struck out pinch hitter Yamil Benitez to end the 7th inning, he set a 9-inning M.L. record for strikeouts in back-to-back games (33), eclipsing the 32 recorded four times previously.

MIDSUMMER CLASSICS

The youngest Cubs player selected to the National League All-Star team was Greg Maddux, who was 22 years old at the 1988 Midsummer Classic in Cincinnati. As he did not participate in that contest, the nod as the youngest Cub to play in the All-Star Game still goes to Ron Santo, who was 23 years old when he made his first of nine All-Star appearances in the 1963 affair in Cleveland. The youngest Cubs pitcher to appear in an All-Star Game was 23-year-old Fergie Jenkins, in the 1967 contest in Anaheim.

The youngest Cub to start an All-Star Game was Augie Galan, who, as a 24-year-old, started in centerfield for the N.L. in the 1936 Midsummer Classic in Boston — and homered off the Detroit Tigers' Schoolboy Rowe.

The oldest Cub to play in an All-Star Game was 38-year-old Ernie Banks, who made his 13th and final All-Star appearance in the 1969 Classic in Washington, DC.

- ♦ entering action on June 9, the Cubs were 32-23 and in 2nd place in the N.L. Central, 1.0 game out of 1st ... the Cubs went 35-72 the rest of the season.
- ♦ the Cubs were 26-51 after the All-Star break (.338 winning percentage) ... since the inception of the All-Star Game in 1933, the Cubs' worst second-half record had been a 25-44 mark in 1974 (.362 winning percentage).

HOME RUN DERBY, YEAR 2: For the second straight year, Mark McGwire and Sammy Sosa finished as the top 2 homer hitters in the major leagues.

- ♦ McGwire now possesses the top (70) and 3rd-best (65) single-season homer totals in big league history, while Sosa ranks 2nd (66) and 4th (63).
- ♦ this was only the fifth time that players finished 1-2 in the majors in homers in back-to-back campaigns.

MILESTONES, RECORDS AND HONORS: Mark Grace became the first Cub during the 1900s to lead a decade in hits, as he outdistanced Rafael Palmeiro 1,754-1,747 during the 1990-1999 campaigns ... Grace also was the 1990s doubles leader (364) and finished 2nd in singles behind Tony Gwynn (1,262-1,238).

- ♦ during the campaign, Grace picked up his 2,000th major league hit (August 2 off Montreal's Dustin Hermanson) and his 400th career double (August 9 off Arizona's Omar Daal).

- ♦ 11 players made their big league debuts over the course of the season.

IMPERFECT PITCH: The Cubs set club pitching records for highest ERA (5.27), most homers allowed (221) and most runs surrendered (920) ... during the campaign, the Cubs:

PINCH HITTER DEFINITION

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

INSIDE-THE-PARK ROUNDTRIPPERS

Only two players hit inside-the-park homers at Wrigley Field during the 1990s — Ryne Sandberg (July 27, 1991, off Atlanta's John Smoltz) and Florida's Kevin Millar (May 24, 1999, off Rick Aguilera). In fact, dating back to 1983, only two other players have hit inside-the-park roundtrippers at The Friendly Confines — the Cubs' Ron Cey (September 22, 1983, vs. Pittsburgh) and Philadelphia's Von Hayes (August 13, 1989).

Only 3 Cubs hit inside-the-park homers during the 1990s — Sandberg, Chico Walker (August 28, 1991, at San Francisco off Paul McClellan) and Sammy Sosa (May 26, 1997, at Pittsburgh off Francisco Cordova).

Here are the Cubs' inside-the-park homer records:

Career Leader (Since 1900): 18	Frank Schulte
Single-Season: 6	Tommy Leach (1913), Cy Williams (1915)
Game: 2	Hugh Duffy (August 9, 1889, vs. Boston Braves), Topsy Hartzel (August 5, 1901, at Cincinnati)

The last Cub to have an inside-the-park homer as his first M.L. homer was Carmen Mauro — on October 3, 1948, at St. Louis (off Murry Dickson).

The only time in Cubs history that the club had back-to-back inside-the-park homers took place June 23, 1946, when Eddie Waitkus and Marv Rickert accomplished the feat against the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds.

PITCHING IN

Did you know that ...

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 victory over Philadelphia. He allowed 13 hits and 1 walk while striking out 8.

Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, Cubs reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the victory, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the bottom of the 19th inning.

The Cubs record for innings pitched by a reliever is 136.1, set by Ted Abernathy in 1965 (84 appearances).

The last Cubs position player to take the mound for the Cubs was third baseman Gary Gaetti, who saw relief action July 3, 1999, at Philadelphia.

The last time Cubs pitchers recorded three consecutive complete games took place in 1976. On September 18, Rick Reuschel went the distance but took the loss in a 4-1 decision vs. Philadelphia at Wrigley Field. On September 19, Ray Burris tossed a shutout in a 1-0 victory over the Phillies. After an off-day, the Cubs returned to action September 21 vs. Pittsburgh — and Steve Renko went the route but suffered the loss in a 4-3 setback.

The best career start record-wise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910. Since World War II, three pitchers have opened their Cubs careers 6-0 — Emil Kish (in 1946), Bill Long (in 1990) and Felix Heredia (3-0 in 1998, 3-0 start in 1999). The worst start belongs to Jim Brewer, who began his Cubs career 0-8 in 1961.

A CALL FOR ARMS

The Cubs set a club record in 1999 by using 25 different pitchers — including third baseman Gary Gaetti (July 3 at Philadelphia).

The Cubs also set a club mark by utilizing 10 left-handed pitchers. Six different southpaws started games (Micah Bowie, Andrew Lorraine, Brian McNichol, Terry Mulholland, Dan Serafini and Brad Woodall), while four others were utilized solely in relief (Doug Creek, Mark Guthrie, Felix Heredia and Ray King).

34 YEARS AND COUNTING

Entering the 2000 season, the Cubs played 5,397 games since they were no-hit by Sandy Koufax in 1965 (a span of just over 34 years). The major league record for consecutive seasons without being no-hit is 40, set by St. Louis from 1920-1959.

Since Koufax's perfect game, the Cubs have had 16 one-hitters tossed against them, with the last one occurring April 10, 1997 (Florida's Alex Fernandez at Wrigley Field).

The Cubs have played 4,275 contests since Milt Pappas' near-perfect game in 1972. Over that stretch, Cubs pitchers have thrown 12 one-hitters, with the last one taking place May 6, 1998 — Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout contest vs. Houston.

Here are the Cubs' most recent 1-hitters against each club (the Cubs have not had a no-hitter nor a 1-hitter against Arizona, Colorado, Florida, Milwaukee, New York or an American League club):

HIGHLIGHTS IN CUBS HISTORY

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Albert Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... centerfielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the 2nd inning.

- ♦ the first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati.
- ♦ the creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until 1882 ... with the assistance of manager Albert Spalding, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.
- ♦ of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1906: The Chicago club went 116-36 in setting all-time major league records for wins in a season and winning percentage (.763).

1907: "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team ... the Cubs then went on to win their first world championship in a 4-game sweep of Detroit.

1908: The Cubs were World Series champions for the second straight year, defeating Detroit 4 games to 1.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park (now known as Wrigley Field).

1921: William Wrigley Jr. became the Cubs' majority owner.

- ♦ Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate led by Charles Weeghman purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to have controlling interest.
- ♦ after Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.
- ♦ the sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

YEAR 125

During their first 124 National League seasons, the Cubs played 18,304 games — and won 9,358 times.

1930: Hack Wilson established a M.L. record by driving in 191 runs while hitting 56 home runs — a club/N.L. record that lasted until 1998.

- ♦ the largest crowd to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field (51,556) took place June 27 vs. Brooklyn ... of that number, 30,476 were Ladies' Day guests and 1,332 were passholders.

1935: The Cubs won 21 straight September games in capturing the N.L. pennant.

1945: The Cubs went to their 10th World Series, falling to Detroit in 7 games.

1958: Ernie Banks became the first member of a team with a losing record to win the MVP Award ... also was named the N.L. MVP in 1959, becoming the first N.L. player to win the award in consecutive seasons.

1960: Don Cardwell threw a no-hitter against St. Louis in his Cubs debut May 15 ... became the first pitcher in baseball history to hurl a no-hitter in his first game for a club.

1970: Billy Williams became the first player in N.L. history to appear in 1,000 consecutive games, reaching that mark April 30 ... his streak extended to 1,117 games before ending September 3.

1978: The largest Opening Day crowd at Wrigley Field — 45,777 — attended the April 14 home opener vs. Pittsburgh.

1982: On May 25 at San Diego, Fergie Jenkins became the seventh pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 strikeouts.

- ♦ on August 22, Ernie Banks became the first Cub to have his uniform number (14) retired.

1984: The Cubs clinched their first N.L. Eastern Division title September 24 in Pittsburgh (4-1), marking the first time since 1945 that the club advanced into the postseason ... the Cubs went 96-65 under N.L. Manager of the Year Jim Frey

- ♦ the Cubs fell to San Diego in the NLCS 3 games to 2.

1987: Andre Dawson became the first player from a sixth-place team to win the N.L.'s Most Valuable Player Award, hitting 49 homers and driving in 137 runs.

- ♦ on August 13, Hall of Famer Billy Williams had his No. 26 retired.

1988: The first Wrigley Field night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia ... the game was rained out after 3^{1/2} innings with the Cubs leading 3-1.

- ♦ the first official night contest took place August 9 vs. New York, with the Cubs winning 6-4 ... the first pitch was thrown by Mike Bielecki at 7:05 p.m. — a called strike to Lenny Dykstra.

- ◆ Sandberg also set a M.L. record by playing errorless ball in 123 straight games at second base June 21, 1989-May 17, 1990.

1993: Sammy Sosa became the first player in Cubs history to record a 30-homer/30-steal campaign (33 homers, 36 steals).

1995: The Cubs won their 9,000th game May 21 at Los Angeles, defeating the Dodgers 2-1 in 13 innings ... the Cubs have won more games than any other one-city professional franchise.

- ◆ Sammy Sosa hit the 10,000th homer in Cubs history August 14 in Los Angeles (off Tom Candiotti).

1998: The Cubs went to postseason play as the N.L.'s Wild Card club after defeating San Francisco 5-3 in a 1-game tie-breaker ... the Cubs were swept by Atlanta during the Division Series.

- ◆ Sammy Sosa, who battled St. Louis' Mark McGwire for the major league homer record, earned N.L. Most Valuable Player honors ... Sosa finished the campaign with 66 homers — 4 behind McGwire — while leading the majors with 158 RBI and 134 runs scored.

- ◆ Kerry Wood was named the league's Rookie of the Year after going 13-6 in 26 starts with 233 strikeouts ... on May 6 vs. Houston, he tied the M.L. single-game mark by fanning 20 batters while allowing just 1 hit in a complete-game 2-0 win.

1999: Sammy Sosa increased his club-record two-year homer total to 129, as he went deep 63 times.

IN SEARCH OF A WINNING STREAK

In 1999, the Cubs established a club record by going without a multi-game winning streak between July 23-September 15 (52 games). They snapped the streak with back-to-back wins September 16 at Cincinnati and September 17 vs. Milwaukee.

The previous record had been 43 contests, set in 1980 (final 7 games) and 1981 (first 36 games).

It's IN THE NUMBERS

On June 30, 1932, a week after National League team presidents approved players wearing numbers, the Cubs added numbers to their uniforms. Like most teams, the Cubs' numbering system followed the team's batting order, with leadoff hitter Woody English wearing No. 1.

◆ no number has been worn every season by a Cub. Jersey No. 22 had the longest streak — 57 years — as the number was utilized every season from 1932-1988 by, among others, Dizzy Dean, Paul Popovich and Bill Buckner.

◆ Stan Hack wore eight numbers as a Cub — 6, 20, 25, 31, 34, 39, 49 and 54. Other 1930s Cubs who wore at least six different numbers were Charlie Grimm (1, 6, 7, 8, 38, 40, 50), Charlie Root (4, 12, 14, 17, 19, 49) and Lon Wameke (12, 16, 17, 19, 32, 36).

◆ the only player to wear both Nos. 14 and 26 was Lou Novikoff — who wore 26 in 1941 and 14 in 1942. He also wore 19 and 45 during his four-year stint with the Cubs.

◆ Billy Williams wore No. 4 in 1959 and 41 in 1960 before switching to 26 in 1961.

◆ when Mark Grace was first called up in 1988, he wore number 28. He switched to 17 when the Cubs returned to Chicago from their road trip.

CUBS ALL-STAR GAME FACTS

Three All-Star Games have been played at Wrigley Field — in 1947, in 1962 and in 1990. The American League won all 3 contests by scores of 2-1, 9-4 and 2-0.

Ernie Banks was selected to the National League All-Star team 14 times, the highest total for a Cubs player. Ryne Sandberg ranks 2nd in club history with 10 All-Star appearances, including 9 starts.

The only Cub to earn Most Valuable Player honors was Bill Madlock, who had a game-winning 2-run bases-loaded 9th-inning single off the White Sox's Rich Gossage in the 1975 contest. Madlock shared MVP honors with the New York Mets' Jon Matlack.

Six Cubs batters have hit All-Star home runs, most recently Andre Dawson in the 1991 contest off Boston's Roger Clemens. The others: Augie Galan (1936 off Detroit's Schoolboy Rowe), Hank Sauer (1952 off Cleveland's Bob Lemon), Ernie Banks (1960 off Boston's Bill Monbouquette), George Altman (1961 off Boston's Mike Fournieles) and Billy Williams (1964 off Kansas City's John Wyatt).

Cubs pitchers have earned 5 All-Star wins — Bob Rush (1952), Larry Jackson (1963), Bruce Sutter (1978 and 1979) and Lee Smith (1987). Cubs relievers have picked up 4 saves (Lon Warneke in 1936, Don Elston in 1959, Sutter in 1980 and Randy Myers in 1995). Cubs pitchers have suffered 4 All-Star losses — Bill Lee (1939), Claude Passeau (1941 and 1946) and Johnny Schmitz (1948).

Passeau is the only Cubs pitcher to start in the All-Star Game, taking the loss in the 1946 Midsummer Classic at Boston's Fenway Park.

ONE CENTURY AGO

The Cubs played their first game of the 1900s on April 19, 1900, at Cincinnati's League Park. The Chicago club, then alternately known as the Colts, the Orphans and the Rough Riders, defeated Cincinnati 13-10 that afternoon. Jock Meneff was the winning pitcher for Chicago, while Bill Phillips took the loss.

The Cubs played their final game of the 1900s on October 3, 1999, at St. Louis' Busch Stadium, dropping a rain-shortened 9-5 contest. Sammy Sosa (homer No. 63) and Mark McGwire (No. 65) both went deep in the contest.

NOT SORRY TO SAY GOODBYE TO THE ASTRODOME

The Cubs played 220 contests at The Astrodome — and hit a grand total of 111 home runs.

The Cubs hit a team-best 8 homers at The Dome in 1966 and 1994. The only Cub to hit more than 2 homers in a season at The Astrodome was George Bell (3) in 1991.

Only 5 Cubs batters had multi-homer games at The Astrodome, most recently Tuffy Rhodes on April 28, 1994. Only a pair of Cubs hit grand slams at the park — Billy Williams (May 1, 1964, off Joe Hoerner) and Ryne Sandberg (May 24, 1996, off Greg Swindell).

During their 124 campaigns, the Cubs have never gone winless in a season series against a National League opponent (the Cubs did go 0-2 against both Cleveland and Detroit in 1998 during interleague play).

The Cubs have recorded just 1 win in a National League season series eight times, most recently by going 1-7 against San Francisco in 1999.

CONNECT THE DOTS

The Cubs' entire National League history can be spanned by the careers of as few as nine players.

Hall of Famer Cap Anson played for the club from 1876-1897. Frank Chance joined the team in 1898 and was with the Cubs until 1912. He was in turn followed by Hippo Vaughn (1913-1921), Gabby Hartnett (1922-1940), Phil Cavarretta (1935-1953) and Ernie Banks (1953-1971). Rick Reuschel's first tour of duty with the Cubs took place from 1972-1981, then Ryne Sandberg played for the team from 1982 until his first retirement in 1994.

Mark Grace (1988) and Sammy Sosa (1992) made their Cubs debuts prior to Sandberg's first retirement.

CUBS POSTSEASON RECAPS

1906 WORLD SERIES — CHICAGO WHITE SOX DEFEATED CUBS 4-2

The 1906 Cubs set a modern record by winning 116 games against only 36 losses ... facing the "Hitless Wonder" White Sox in the first one-city World Series, the Cubs were heavily favored to win their first Fall Classic.

- played in snowy October weather, the first 4 games were dominated by pitching ... Nick Altrock and Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown duelled in the opener with both pitchers allowing only 4 hits, but the White Sox scratched out a 2-1 win ... Ed Reulbach evened the Series with a 1-hitter the following day ... the clubs then traded shutouts, leaving the Series tied after four games.
- the Cubs were held to a .196 batting average ... the White Sox didn't fare much better, hitting only .198.

1907 WORLD SERIES — CUBS DEFEATED DETROIT TIGERS 4-0 (1 Tie)

Trailing 3-1 with 2 out in the 9th inning of the Series opener, the Cubs rallied for 2 runs to send the game into extra innings ... after 12 innings, the game was called due to darkness ... Cubs pitchers then took over the Series, allowing only 3 more Tigers runs as Chicago claimed its first World Series title.

- four Cub starting pitchers combined for a 0.75 ERA and held future Hall of Famers Ty Cobb and Sam Crawford to .200 and .238 batting averages, respectively.

After a one-year absence, the Cubs returned for their fourth World Series in five years ... an aging Cub team, however, fell to Connie Mack's Athletics.

- the Athletics easily took the first 3 games of the Series ... the Cubs staved off elimination with a 4-3 comeback win in Game 4, with Mordecai Brown earning the win in relief ... the following day, the Athletics scored 5 runs off Brown in the 8th inning to capture the World Series with a 7-2 win.

With World War I raging in Europe, the regular season ended three weeks early ... the Series opened in early September, with the first 3 games played in Chicago — at Comiskey Park (due to its seating capacity).

- the Red Sox, led by pitcher Babe Ruth, beat the Cubs in 6 games ... Jim "Hippo" Vaughn went just 1-2 for the Cubs despite allowing only 3 runs in 27.0 innings.

A REAL MAY DAY IN CUBS HISTORY

On May 12, 1930, Cliff Heathcote, Hack Wilson, Clyde Beck and Charlie Grimm all homered in the 7th inning of the Cubs' 14-12 loss to the New York Giants at Wrigley Field. The Cubs fell just short after spotting New York a 14-0 lead.

On May 12, 1955, Sam Jones no-hit Pittsburgh 4-0 for the first no-hitter at Wrigley Field in 38 years. Jones walked the bases loaded in the 9th, then struck out the next three Pirates batters to end the contest.

On May 12, 1970, Ernie Banks became the first player in Cubs history to reach the 500-homers mark, accomplishing the feat with a 2nd-inning homer off Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.

PHILLING UP THE SCOREBOARD

On August 25, 1922, the Cubs topped Philadelphia 26-23 at Cubs Park in the highest-scoring game in major league history. The teams combined for 51 hits, 23 walks and 25 men left-on-base. A 10-run 2nd inning followed by a 14-run outburst in the 4th helped the Cubs build a 25-6 lead. Philadelphia fought back and had the bases full when the last out was recorded in the 9th inning.

On May 17, 1979, Dave Kingman hit 3 homers and drove in 6 runs, but Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt answered with 2 homers — including the game-winner in the 10th — to give the Phillies a 23-22 victory in baseball's highest-scoring game since the 1922 affair. The Cubs had trailed 21-9, but rallied and tied the score in the 8th.

HISTORIC HOME RUNS

On September 28, 1938, Gabby Hartnett's "Homer in the Gloamin'" propelled the Cubs to the 1938 National League pennant. Entering the day, the Cubs trailed the visiting first-place Pirates by a half-game. Tied 5-5 with darkness descending at Wrigley Field, the game was to be suspended if neither team scored in the 9th — but Hartnett's 2-out blast into the leftfield bleachers won it.

On April 8, 1969, Willie Smith's 2-run pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 11th inning gave the Cubs a 7-6 victory over Philadelphia on Opening Day at Wrigley Field. Trailing 6-5 with 1 out, Smith thrilled the crowd of 40,796 by homering into the rightfield bleachers to put the Cubs in first place in the N.L. East for the first of 155 straight days.

On April 4, 1994, Tuffy Rhodes became the first player in National League history to hit 3 homers on Opening Day — all off New York's Dwight Gooden. In the process, he also became the first big leaguer to homer in his first 3 at-bats of a season.

IMPERFECT PITCH

The Cubs allowed 54 runs over a 3-game span July 1-July 3, 1999, surrendering 19 runs to Milwaukee before allowing back-to-back 14- and 21-run efforts at Philadelphia.

- ◆ the 3-game total was the highest in the majors in 49 seasons. From June 7-June 9, 1950, the St. Louis Browns surrendered 56 runs to the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park (the Browns lost the first 2 games by scores of 20-4 and 29-4 before recording a 12-7 win).

Meanwhile, on May 4-May 5, 1999, the Cubs allowed at least 1 run in 13 consecutive innings (against Colorado) — a 20th-century National League record. The former N.L. mark of 12 innings had been set by Philadelphia in 1923.

- ◆ the 20th-century major league runs-allowed streak was set by Cleveland — a 14-inning stretch in 1903 at Boston (September 16-September 17).
- ◆ during the May 5 contest, the Cubs became the seventh team in N.L. history to allow runs in all 9 innings of a 9-inning affair.

SPANNING THE GLOBE

The Cubs' minor league system features players born in 12 countries/territories. While a majority of the 200-plus players hail from the United States, the Dominican Republic and Venezuela, the following global points have also been the birthplace of members of the farm system:

AUSTRALIA: Adam Morrissey
CANADA: Paul Vracar
COLOMBIA: Reggie Gordon
KOREA: Hee Seop Choi, Yoon-Min Kweon
MEXICO: Daniel Garibay, Augie Ojeda
PANAMA: Eduardo Jaen, Manuel Mendieta
PUERTO RICO: Raul Gonzalez, Omar Rohena
VIRGIN ISLANDS: J.D. Clarke
WEST GERMANY: Will Ohman

Meanwhile, during their 124-year history, the Cubs have had players born in 49 U.S. states, the District of Columbia and 19 territories/foreign countries.

The only state not represented by a Cubs player is Alaska. Three states have provided just one Cub — Nevada (Shawn Boskie), North Dakota (Lynn Nelson) and Wyoming (Dick Ellsworth).

The Cubs will spend their 22nd consecutive spring training in Mesa in 2000 and their fourth at the new HoHoKam Park/Fitch Park facilities.

- ◆ HoHoKam Park is operated by the city of Mesa with assistance from the HoHoKams, a local service organization.
- ◆ Mesa is the second-largest city in the Phoenix metropolitan area and the third-largest city in Arizona ... Mesa is located southeast of Phoenix and Scottsdale.
- ◆ with a population of over 380,000, Mesa ranks as one of the fastest growing cities in the United States (among those with populations of at least 200,000) and the 46th-largest city in the country — directly between Oakland and Minneapolis.
- ◆ Mesa was founded in January 1878 and was incorporated in July 1883 ... the area of the city is 128 square miles.
- ◆ the telephone number for the Mesa Convention and Visitors Bureau is 1-800-283-MESA.

The Cubs began play at the new HoHoKam Park in 1997.

- ◆ new HoHoKam Park has a seating capacity of 12,575 ... there are 8,000 fixed seats and 2,000 bleacher seats to go with an outfield lawn seating capacity of 2,575.
- ◆ the stadium dimensions are:
 - 340 feet down the leftfield line
 - 350 feet down the rightfield line
 - 410 feet to straight-away centerfield

In 1999, the Cubs established a HoHoKam Park/Cactus League single-season attendance record. The club drew 171,681 fans for its 15 home dates, an average of 11,445 per date.

- ◆ the Cubs have surpassed the 100,000 mark in home attendance 13 times in the last 15 years (1985-1989, 1991-1994, 1996-1999).
- ◆ during their first two years at the new facility, the Cubs drew 157,066 in 1997 (16 dates) and 134,329 in 1998 (16 dates).

THE TRIP To TOKYO

The Cubs will begin their 125th National League campaign in Japan, as the club will play its first two games against the New York Mets on March 29-March 30 at the Tokyo Dome. The season-opening series will mark the first time in major league history that a regular-season contest will be played outside of North America.

The Cubs also are slated to play a pair of exhibition contests against Japanese teams. On March 27, the Cubs will face the Yomiuri Giants at the Tokyo Dome. On March 28, they will play the Seibu Lions at the Seibu Dome.

In case you were wondering ...

- the first one-time Cub to play in Japan was Jim Marshall, who spent three seasons overseas (1963-1965).
- the only players to see action for the Cubs after playing in Japan were infielder Davey Johnson (Japan 1975-1976, Cubs 1978) and pitcher Doug Creek (Japan 1998, Cubs 1999).
- the longest tenure of a former Cub in Japan was eight years (George Altman, 1968-1975).
- the list of one-time Cubs who later played in Japan includes Don Zimmer, Joe Pepitone, Bill Madlock, Willie Smith, Vance Law and Tuffy Rhodes.

Although the Cubs have not had a player of Japanese descent on their major league roster, the club has been represented through the years by players born in 19 foreign countries/U.S. territories ... the first Cub born in each of those locations:

HISTORY OF WRIGLEY FIELD

Wrigley Field, which was built in 1914, is playing host to major league baseball for the 87th season in 2000.

- ◆ with the retirement of Detroit's Tiger Stadium in 1999, The Friendly Confines is now the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).
- ◆ Wrigley Field has been the site of such historic moments as:
 - ✓ Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
 - ✓ Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin'" September 28, 1938, vs. Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
 - ✓ the great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
 - ✓ Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
 - ✓ Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.

Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.

- ◆ Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry in the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.
- ◆ the cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- ◆ the first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson — a 2-run shot in the 2nd inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.
- ◆ when the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corner of Clark and Addison streets.
- ◆ the first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.
- ◆ the park became known as Cubs Park in 1920 after the Wrigley family purchased the team from Weeghman ... it was named Wrigley Field in 1926 in honor of William Wrigley Jr., the club's owner.

The Wrigley Field bleachers and scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

- ◆ the score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" to signify hit and error, are eyelets.
- ◆ no batted ball has ever hit the centerfield scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed — a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.
- ◆ one of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

- ◆ the bleacher wall is 11.5 feet high ... the basket attached to the wall was constructed in 1970.
- ◆ Ernie Banks' uniform number (14) is imprinted on the flag which flies from the leftfield foul pole ... Billy Williams' No. 26 flies from the rightfield foul pole.

Wrigley Field added lights in 1988.

- ◆ the first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, but was rained out after 3^{1/2} innings.
- ◆ the first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.

Wrigley Field has also been the site of numerous construction projects since Tribune Company purchased the Cubs in 1981.

- ◆ new office space was created and old offices refurbished in the administrative area behind home plate in 1981-1982, while the ticket office was built directly behind home plate in 1983.
- ◆ during the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitors' clubhouse was renovated in 1990.
- ◆ in 1989, private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, formerly occupied by the press box and broadcasting booths ... a press box and broadcasting booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... other park improvements included a food court in the upper deck.
- ◆ following renovations in 1994 and 1995, there are now 63 private boxes.
- ◆ an elevator was added to the third base concourse in 1996.
